

GRIMES, Iowa, October 1, 2020 --

National Carwash Solutions (NCS), the world's premier provider of car wash systems, cleaning solutions, and maintenance services is very pleased to announce its strategic partnership with Cleaning Systems, Inc. (CSI), manufacturers of the industry leading Lustra Professional Car Care Products.

"We are constantly searching for strong strategic partners willing to join the NCS family," said Michael Gillen, CEO of NCS. "CSI and its family of brands, led by Lustra, is an absolutely perfect fit with our brand portfolio. We're thrilled to partner with such an innovative company that serves many vehicle care channels, including car wash operators."

CSI, based in De Pere, Wisconsin, works with a variety of customers in commercial and industrial operations that require high quality detergents and cleaning fluids, including car wash operators. CSI adds value utilizing a customer driven approach, providing technology-driven chemistry and application systems solutions to those in need of vehicle cleaning and protection, with the paramount objective being clean, shiny vehicles and satisfied consumers.

"National Carwash Solutions was the clear choice as our strategic partner in terms of continuing our vision of being the industry leader in satisfying customer needs for clean and shiny vehicles. Only NCS has the brands, the proactive strategy, and the market leadership that will drive our business to even higher levels. I am thrilled to watch the company I began so many years ago join the NCS family," said Dave Krause, CEO of Cleaning Systems, Inc.

National Car Wash Solutions leads the car wash industry with world class brands including MacNeil, Ryko, TSS, Vacutech, and CleanTouch. NCS has also partnered with the very best car wash distributors in North America, including Hi-Performance Wash Systems, Auto-Clean, Arizona Car Wash Systems, Complete Car Wash, NuLook, Badger Land, and Carwash Solutions. These partnerships have solidified NCS's dominant market position in profitable solutions, offering the nation's only direct service network to meet the business needs of car wash operators across the country. CSI adds formidable firepower to NCS's arsenal of bundled products and services, in the form of premium, nationally recognized cleaning fluids brands, to meet all of a customer's car wash needs.

CSI will continue to provide the same great sales, service, and support to all customers, as they have for over 40 years. "We are excited to partner with the entire team of NCS companies and be able to drive even greater overall value to our loyal customers," said

Doug Marquis, CSI's Vice President. "The future is extremely bright, and our organization is well positioned to meet all the needs of a rapidly developing car wash market."
